CONFLICT MATERIAL POLICY

Subject: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and "Conflict Materials" as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission

Dear Valued Customer,

Congress passed the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the "Act"). The purpose of the Act is to require companies who manufacture products to disclose whether or not "Conflict Materials" are used in any of the products manufactured by such companies. The Act and the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") have defined what constitutes "Conflict Materials".

Kreher Steel Company, LLC, ("Kreher Steel") is not a manufacturer, and pursuant to the Act is exempt from filing any documents with the SEC regarding Conflict Materials. However, to assist you, please accept this letter as confirmation that Kreher Steel will not knowingly utilize or accept manufactured materials that are provided to Kreher Steel that contain or utilize any Conflict Materials, unless such manufactured materials are from recycled or scrap sources, as permitted under Section 13(p) of the relevant Acts.

As a supplier of quality products, Kreher Steel is here to assist you in any way that we can. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

KREHER STEEL COMPANY, LLC
